Anexo nº 1

Question of East Timor

The General Assembly,

Recognizing the inalienable right of all peoples to self-determination and independence in accordance with the principles of the Charter of the United Nations and of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in its resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960,

Having examined the chapter of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples relating to East Timor and other relevant documents,

Recalling Security Council resolutions 384 (1975) and 389 (1976) on the question of East Timor,

Having heard the statement of the representative of Portugal, as the administering Power,

Having heard the statement of the representative of Indonesia,

Having heard the statements of the representative of Frente Revolucionária de Timor Leste Independente, the Liberation Movement of East Timor, and various East Timorese petitioners, as well as of representatives of non-governmental organizations,

Considering that an advisory opinion from the International Court of Justice would be useful for the General Assembly in its further consideration of the question of East Timor and in furtherance of the objectives of the Charter of the United Nations and of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples,

1. Decides to submit, in accordance with Article 96 (1) of the Charter, the following question to the International Court of Justice with the request for an advisory opinion which shall be transmitted to the General Assembly at an early date, for consideration at its 38th session,

"Have the people of East Timor exercised their right to self-determination and independence, in accordance with the principles of the Charter of the United Nations and of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in the General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960, and resolution 1541 (XV) of 15 December 1960?"

2. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit the present resolution to the International Court of Justice, in accordance with article 65 of the Statute of the Court, accompanied by all United Nations official documents, as well as all available documents from Non-Governmental Organizations and individuals, with a view to throw light upon the question.

3. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-eight session the item entitled "Question of East Timor".
